ABOUT TYRIQUE

Tyrique Glasgow is a nationally recognized motivational speaker, nonprofit leader, and community change agent whose message centers on resilience, redemption, leadership, and opportunity. Through his work and story, he helps audiences reframe hardship into purpose and action. He is also the founder of the Young Chances Foundation, a South Philadelphia organization founded in 2012 to expand opportunities for children, families, and communities through programming, support, and access to resources. Tyrique's speaking style is authentic, direct, and solutions-oriented, making him a strong fit for audiences seeking both inspiration and practical insight.

RECOGNITION & IMPACT
